Via Cerva 20, Milano

Flexworking is a co-working space for freelancers, entrepreneurs, business developers and start-ups looking for a prestigious location to work in, to meet clients and organize meetings, workshops, training courses and events.

A distinctive element of what we offer is flexibility, which enables every one of your partners' and co-workers' professional, organisational and logistic needs to be met.

The advantage of Flexworking is that it offers a co-working space equipped with a large number of exclusive desks, in the heart of Milan's historical city centre:

we are located in Via Cerva, in the San Babila area, just a few minutes walk from both the Piazza Duomo, the main fashion district and the Law Courts.
